—To move or not to move, is the question.

—Cakes of all kinds at Bon Ton.

—O. O. Walker is now day operator at the M. K. & T. depot.

—Go to the Bon Ton ice cream parlor for your cream. Carey Hoffman, manager.

—The youngest child of J. W. Martin died last Thursday morning at an early hour.

—Remember, you can get your ice cream wants supplied at Bon Ton bakery.

—G. H. Bell, being in very poor health, started for Pueblo, Col., yesterday morning.

—Mrs. Goodknight gave a very pleasant lawn party to the elite of the city Tuesday evening.

—Delora Blanche, the infant daughter of J. L. Bunker, died Tuesday morning of bronchitis.

—Dr. Leo E. Bennett, U. S. Indian agent, was up last Friday attending to some business for the Shawnees.

—Little, big, old and young are cordially invited to visit at the Bon Ton bakery. Carey Hoffman, manager.

—You will find at Bon Ton ice cream parlors at the Bon Ton as you would wish to see. Carey Hoffman, manager.

—Notice change of dates: Dr. L. O. Ellis, dentist, will be in Tulsa from June 8th to 14th; Chouteau from June 10th to 15th.

—A certain gentleman says the Afton Sunday school has been invited to attend the picnic tomorrow and he thinks "she will be there."

—Mrs. Tom McSpadden and her sister, Maud Rogers, are very sick indeed but the doctor thought he detected a slight change for the better on his last visit.

—By the outside appearance you are not apt to know what is on the inside. Hence you will be surprised when you call at Bon Ton bakery. Carey Hoffman, manager.

—Official notice was served last Saturday upon all occupants of the Frisco right of way to remove their improvements by June 30th or until would be filed in the courts to compel them to do so.

—L. C. Couch has 100 acres of corn which is upwards of knee high and as level and even as though a machine had been run over it. He has also a hundred acres of soy corn which looks exceptionally well.

—The old union soldiers had a pleasant and a social meeting Monday evening and transacted some business. They meet again next Saturday week at one o'clock p. m., sharp, and extend a cordial invitation to all comrades to be present.

—When you get "cheap printing" from "John-John" houses you can always depend upon getting an inferior quality of paper and an unsatisfactory job all around. The Chouteaus always turn out work which assures continued orders.

—Mrs. Tom Quirk died in Colorado last Friday morning and was buried at this place on Sunday afternoon. The family left here about a year ago on account of the lady's health but, to no purpose. The husband will return to Colorado to reside.

—Commencement exercises of Harrell Institute and the Presbyterian mission, at Muskogee, both occur this week. Several Vinita people are attending, including the family of Mr. Patton, whose daughter is a student at Harrell. This office acknowledges the courtesy of invitations.

—Jeff McGhee, clerk of Delaware district, was in the city Monday hearing an objection case on a complaint filed by Mrs. Ann Daniels against Elias Lyons, a colored man. The decision was reserved until certain facts could be obtained from the executive office—probably about Saturday.

—This office has now in stock a supply of chattel mortgages, which embody a clause conveying power to sell property without court. The form of the form required under the new statute and will be found secure and safe. Merchants may order from this office at 50 cents per dozen; special prices on larger orders.

—Returning from Washington.

—U. S. Marshal Needles was here last Saturday on his way home from Washington where he had been to attend to the settlement of his accounts and other business matters. The attempt of Congressman Rogers to bolster up the business of the Fort Smith court by a special enactment taking the law cases away from the Indian Territory court, Mr. Needles thought would fail. The motive was too apparent.

—Arrested for Adultery.

—Dr. G. C. Hoy was arrested at Afton last Friday by Deputy Isbell on a writ charging adultery. Four months ago this doctor left his family in Bates county, Mo., and came with a Miss Zoek to Afton where they have since lived in the apparent relations of husband and wife. The man is forty-five years old; the woman less than twenty. Her people are wealthy and a brother, J. D. Zoek, was at Fort Smith last week where he swore out the writ and arranged for the prosecution.

—Pionero.

—Friday there will be a grand Sunday school picnic near Cabin creek. Each of the Sunday schools have members on the committee, and have instructed them to spare no efforts to make the day a complete success. The committee have chosen a beautiful grove three miles from town and are doing all in their power to make it fit for the pleasure seekers. Crough, lawn tennis and base ball grounds will be laid off. The committee will introduce several novel features, among which will be the parade to the grounds. The procession is to be headed by the brass band, which will be followed by the traction engine drawing trains of wagons for the accommodation of the Sunday scholars. Next will be a long line of buggies and wagons. If everything pans out according to the plans of the committee, it will be a red letter day.

PERSONAL.

—Mrs. Milford returned from a visit of two weeks in Topeka last Saturday evening.

—Star J. F. Thompson, of the archaic, archaic, preached at the Methodist church last Sunday.

—H. H. Edmondson and family were here Sunday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Quirk. Mrs. Edmondson's sister.

—Mrs. A. C. Raymond has gone on a visit to the orphan asylum and will remain until after the closing exercises.

—Rev. Rivers was compelled by the sickness of a child to leave St. Louis before the close of conference and yesterday.

—Mr. J. C. Worley, of Springfield, Mo., an applicant for the position of principal of Gateway college, has been out this way during the past week looking over the ground.

—Wm. McKay came down last week to take his son, Eugene, home from the academy. He is satisfied with the progress made and will send the young gentleman back next term.

—Dr. E. E. Garrison, now residing at Popular Hill, Mo., and wife, have faith enough in this Christian to pay his subscription farther ahead than any person on the books, was down on a visit last week.

—Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy and Mr. Brown left last Friday morning for an engine visit and are at Stratton Springs this week attending a meeting of the Home Missionary society. Miss Goodknight is at Stratton, Ark.

—Miss Jessie Hall left for St. Louis last Friday, when she will make her future home, and will live with her brother until the rest of this family returns to that city. Miss Hall is a most pleasant and estimable young lady and has a host of friends here who will miss her very much and regret her departure.

—Another New Enterprise.

—Rev. J. E. Wolfe, on his recent trip to St. Louis, purchased an engine (ten horse power) and a complete outfit of wood-working tools. They embrace a planer, jointer, lathe, a full set of tools for use with the latter, and everything of this character which $1400 or $1500 would buy. Mr. Wolfe has begun the erection of a shop just south of his home and within a short time expects to have his machinery in operation.

—Death of Mrs. McGinnis.

—Mrs. Sarah McGinnis, nee Mayes, wife of Chas. T. McGinnis, died on Cowardin Prairie, May 27, 1890. She was thirty-eight years old, was a half sister of Hon. J. B. Mayes and had a large family. She lived a consistent Christian for twenty-four years, was a devoted wife, a loving mother and sister, and left a husband and six children. Her malady was that fatal and dreaded disease, consumption. As the end came near she called her children to her bedside, counseled them to walk uprightly and told them she was prepared to die. May God, with his love, comfort the bereaved.

—Closing Exercises.

—The concert and commencement exercises of Worcester academy Thursday night was pronounced by many as quite a success. Long before the exercises began the house was full and hardly standing room, thus showing at the people of Vinita appreciated the work of Worcester academy and expected the entertainment to be a real treat, in which they were not disappointed. The music was good, as was also the essays. The graduating class was small this year, consisting of one member, Miss Blanche Hall, who was unanimously voted as fair and becoming a "sweet girl graduate" as ever smiled upon a delighted audience.
